

CHAPTER-2 | The Adventures of Toto

QUIZ
PART-02

1. What did Toto do when Grandfather tried to prove to the ticket-collector that he was a monkey?

A. Toto stayed calm and quiet
B. Toto poked his head out of the bag
C. Toto ran away
D. Toto gave the ticket-collector a high-five

(B)

Explanation: Toto mischievously poked his head out of the bag and grinned, which made the ticket-collector charge fare for him as a dog.

2. How much fare did the ticket-collector charge for Toto?

A. Two rupees
B. Three rupees
C. Five rupees
D. Ten rupees

(B)

Explanation: The ticket-collector classified Toto as a dog and charged Grandfather three rupees as his fare.

3. What did the ticket-collector say about the tortoise?

A. It was also chargeable
B. It was cheaper than a dog
C. There was no charge for it
D. It had to be left behind

(C)

Explanation: The ticket-collector said the tortoise was not a dog, so no fare was needed.

4. What did Toto do to Nana, the family donkey?

A. Sat quietly on his back
B. Fastened his sharp little teeth to Nana's long ears
C. Pulled at his tail
D. Ate his food

(B)

Explanation: On the first night in the stable, Toto bit Nana's long ears with his teeth, and they never became friends.

5. How did Toto take his bath in winter evenings?

A. He avoided bathing
B. He jumped directly into cold water
C. He tested the water with one foot, then stepped in gradually up to his neck
D. He splashed water without bathing properly

(C)

Explanation: Toto cleverly tested the water with one foot and then entered gradually, bathing like a human.

6. What nearly happened to Toto in the kitchen kettle?

A. He broke the kettle
B. He drank the water
C. He nearly boiled himself alive
D. He spilled the water

(C)

Explanation: Toto sat in a kettle of water that was on the fire until it began boiling, and Grandmother had to rescue him.

7. How did Toto react when caught eating pullao?

A. He ran away quietly
B. He started throwing plates and glasses at people
C. He hid under the table
D. He apologized by chattering

(B)

Explanation: When caught, Toto threw a plate at Grandmother and a glass of water at an aunt before escaping with the dish.

8. Where did Toto go with the dish of pullao?

A. The roof of the house
B. Into the branches of a jackfruit tree
C. Behind the stable
D. Into the kitchen corner

(B)

Explanation: Toto climbed into a jackfruit tree and sat with the dish, eating the rice slowly.

9. What did Toto do after finishing the rice in the pullao dish?

A. He hid the dish
B. He cleaned it and left it aside
C. He threw it down and broke it
D. He gave it back to Grandmother

(C)

Explanation: To spite Grandmother, Toto spitefully threw the dish down, breaking it into many pieces.

10. For how much was Toto finally sold back to the tonga-driver?

A. Five rupees
B. Two rupees
C. Three rupees
D. Ten rupees

(C)

Explanation: As the family could not afford his mischief, Grandfather sold Toto back to the tonga-driver for three rupees.