

Chapter – 9 | Family and Community

QUIZ
PART-04

1. What is the primary unit of any society?
A. School
B. Family
C. Community
D. Nation (B)

Explanation: The family is the fundamental building block of society where individuals first learn values and social roles.

2. Which type of family consists of several generations living together?
A. Nuclear family
B. Joint family
C. Extended family
D. Single-parent family (B)

Explanation: A joint family typically includes grandparents, parents, children, uncles, aunts, and cousins living under one roof.

3. Why is there often no specific term for 'cousin' in Indian languages?
A. Cousins are considered siblings
B. Cousins are not part of the family
C. There is no cultural importance for cousins
D. Indian languages lack vocabulary for relationships (A)

Explanation: In Indian culture, cousins are often referred to as brothers and sisters, reflecting strong family bonds.

4. What is one of the key values taught in Indian families?
A. Competition
B. Ahimsa (non-violence)
C. Cruelty
D. Individualism (B)

Explanation: Ahimsa, or non-violence, is a core value passed down through Indian family traditions.

5. What is the term used by the Bhil community for collective support during crises?
A. Sewa
B. Halma
C. Dharma
D. Tyaga (B)

Explanation: Halma refers to the Bhil tradition of coming together as a community to address collective challenges.

6. What type of new communities emerged in urban areas in the last 30–40 years?
A. Joint families
B. Residents' Welfare Associations
C. Farming collectives
D. Handicraft cooperatives (B)

Explanation: RWAs (Residents' Welfare Associations) formed in urban areas to manage responsibilities like cleanliness and security.

7. What is the key characteristic of communities?
A. Independence
B. Interdependence
C. Competition
D. Isolation (B)

Explanation: Communities are based on interdependence where members rely on and support one another.

8. What value was reflected in Kamal Parmar's initiative to teach underprivileged children?
A. Wealth
B. Competition
C. Compassion
D. Authority (C)

Explanation: Kamal Parmar's actions show compassion as he educated and fed children who were out of school.

9. What did the Bhil community aim to serve in their halma tradition?
A. The government
B. Local authorities
C. Personal interests
D. Mother Earth (D)

Explanation: The Bhil people plant trees and build trenches as a form of service to Mother Earth and the environment.

10. What cooperative was Tenzing's mother involved in?
A. Wool cooperative
B. Food distribution group
C. School committee
D. Handicraft cooperative (D)

Explanation: Tenzing's mother contributed to the community by participating in a handicraft cooperative.