

Poem-8 | A Slumber Did not Seal

QUIZ-01

- What does the phrase "A slumber did my spirit seal" mean in the poem?
  - The poet feels bitter grief.
  - The poet is at peace.
  - The poet's soul is closed off in deep sleep.
  - The poet is angry at the loss. (C)

Explanation: The phrase reflects a sense of numbness or detachment as the poet's mind is sealed off by a metaphorical slumber.
- How does the poet describe the state of the loved one after death?
  - She has joined the heavens.
  - She is part of nature.
  - She is reborn.
  - She lives in his memories. (B)

Explanation: The poet imagines her as being "rolled round in earth's diurnal course with rocks and stones and trees," symbolizing unity with nature.
- Which line implies that time no longer affects the loved one?
  - "I had no human fears."
  - "The touch of earthly years."
  - "She neither hears nor sees."
  - "No motion has she now, no force." (B)

Explanation: This line signifies that she is beyond the reach of time and earthly concerns.
- What is the poet's initial reaction to his loved one's death?
  - Bitter grief.
  - Anger.
  - Detachment.
  - Joy. (C)

Explanation: The poet's spirit is described as being sealed in slumber, indicating emotional numbness rather than overt grief.
- What does the phrase "rolled round in earth's diurnal course" signify?
  - A rebirth.
  - Eternal rest.
  - Integration with the natural cycle.
  - Ascension to the heavens. (C)

Explanation: The phrase suggests that the loved one is now part of the daily rotation of the Earth and its natural elements.

- What does "No motion has she now, no force" indicate?
  - Her transition to a higher realm.
  - Her integration into nature's stillness.
  - Her inability to express emotions.
  - Her eternal happiness. (B)

Explanation: This line reflects her loss of individual force and motion, aligning her with the stillness of nature.
- How does the poet view the inevitability of death in the poem?
  - With anger.
  - With acceptance.
  - With despair.
  - With confusion. (B)

Explanation: The poet's tone suggests a calm acceptance of death as a natural process, rather than a tragic event.
- What does the poet feel about human fears in the context of his loved one's death?
  - They are amplified.
  - They are diminished.
  - They are irrelevant.
  - They are unavoidable. (C)

Explanation: The poet suggests that the loved one is no longer affected by earthly fears or concerns.
- What literary device is used in "rolled round in earth's diurnal course"?
  - Metaphor.
  - Simile.
  - Personification.
  - Alliteration. (A)

Explanation: The phrase metaphorically describes her becoming part of the Earth's natural cycle.
- What theme is central to the poem?
  - The transience of life.
  - Eternal love.
  - The joy of living.
  - Rebirth after death. (A)

Explanation: The poem reflects on the impermanence of human life and the merging of the individual with nature.