

CHAPTER-9 | Family and Community

QUIZ-01

1. What is the main difference between a joint family and a nuclear family?

- A. Joint families are wealthier
- B. Nuclear families are more traditional
- C. Joint families include multiple generations; nuclear families are smaller
- D. Nuclear families live in villages only (C)

Explanation: A joint family includes grandparents, parents, uncles, aunts, and cousins; a nuclear family includes just parents and children.

2. In Indian languages, cousins are often referred to as:

- A. Friends
- B. Uncle's children
- C. Siblings
- D. Extended relatives (C)

Explanation: In most Indian languages, cousins are referred to simply as brothers or sisters, showing close familial bonds.

3. What value did Shalini learn during the Onam festival?

- A. To shop for herself
- B. To be independent
- C. To share and care for family
- D. To avoid festivals (C)

Explanation: Shalini learned that family members sometimes make sacrifices so that others can also celebrate equally.

4. What key value is reflected when children participate in household work?

- A. Disobedience
- B. Dependence
- C. Responsibility
- D. Laziness (C)

Explanation: Helping with household chores teaches children responsibility and cooperation.

5. What is 'Halma' in the Bhil community known for?

- A. A wedding tradition
- B. A storytelling event
- C. Collective community work
- D. A dance ritual (C)

Explanation: Halma is a tradition where the Bhil community works together for causes like water conservation without expecting payment.

6. Why did Kamal Parmar start evening classes in Ahmedabad?

- A. To earn extra income
- B. To avoid loneliness
- C. To educate underprivileged children
- D. To teach music (C)

Explanation: He voluntarily started classes to support street children with no access to school.

7. What does a community ensure through shared practices?

- A. Competition
- B. Unfair resource use
- C. Access and responsibility
- D. Individualism (C)

Explanation: Communities ensure secure and fair access to shared resources through agreed practices and duties.

8. What does the story of Tenzing's family highlight?

- A. Nuclear family problems
- B. Gender roles in rural life
- C. Equal sharing of duties in a joint family
- D. School failures (C)

Explanation: The story shows how family members, including grandparents, share roles and responsibilities in a supportive environment.

9. Which of the following is NOT a type of community mentioned in the text?

- A. Art club community
- B. Digital payment community
- C. Religious community
- D. Scientific community (B)

Explanation: While other communities are clearly mentioned, "digital payment community" is not discussed in the chapter.

10. What is a common characteristic of all communities?

- A. Independence
- B. Interdependence
- C. Isolation
- D. Competition (B)

Explanation: Communities are based on mutual support and interdependence among their members.