

Poem-3 | Rain on the Roof

QUIZ-01

1. What do the "humid shadows" refer to in the poem?

- A. The poet's childhood memories
- B. The dark clouds before the rain
- C. The sound of rain on the roof
- D. The echo in the poet's heart (B)

Explanation: "Humid shadows" symbolize the dark clouds that precede the rain, creating a moody atmosphere.

2. What is described as "melancholy darkness" in the poem?

- A. The dark clouds covering the sky
- B. The poet's mood
- C. The time of night during rain
- D. The poet's longing for his mother (A)

Explanation: The phrase "melancholy darkness" reflects the somber atmosphere created by rain-laden clouds.

3. What emotion does the poet associate with the rain?

- A. Bliss
- B. Sorrow
- C. Anger
- D. Fear (A)

Explanation: The poet expresses happiness and tranquility while lying in bed listening to the rain.

4. What awakens "a thousand dreamy fancies" in the poet's mind?

- A. The sound of thunder
- B. The patter of soft rain
- C. The poet's memories of childhood
- D. The sight of the dark sky (B)

Explanation: The soothing sound of raindrops on the roof triggers the poet's imagination and nostalgic memories.

5. What are the "darling dreamers" the poet refers to?

- A. His childhood friends
- B. His siblings
- C. Himself and his siblings as children
- D. All the children who love rain (C)

Explanation: "Darling dreamers" refers to the poet and his siblings during their innocent childhood.

6. What does the phrase "weave their air-threads into woof" suggest?

- A. The poet's memories becoming vivid
- B. The poet's imagination running wild
- C. The blending of rain with darkness
- D. The sounds of the rain becoming rhythmic (A)

Explanation: The phrase describes how the poet's memories are woven together vividly, like threads in a fabric.

7. What does the poet like to do when it rains?

- A. Walk in the rain
- B. Sleep and listen to the patter of rain
- C. Write poetry
- D. Play with his siblings (B)

Explanation: The poet finds comfort and joy in lying in bed and enjoying the sound of rain.

8. What memory comes to the poet's mind when it rains?

- A. His mother's fond look
- B. Playing with his friends
- C. Reading books in his room
- D. Watching rain from the window (A)

Explanation: The sound of rain brings back memories of his mother's affectionate gaze.

9. What does the poet call the sound of the rain on the roof?

- A. A melody
- B. A refrain
- C. A whisper
- D. A hum (B)

Explanation: The poet likens the repeated sound of the rain to a refrain in a song.

10. What does the poet mean by the line, "O! I feel her fond look on me"?

- A. The poet imagines his mother scolding him
- B. The poet recalls his mother's loving gaze
- C. The poet feels his mother's presence in the rain
- D. The poet sees his mother's face in the clouds (B)

Explanation: The poet reminisces about his mother's affectionate look during his childhood.