

CHAPTER-8 | A House Is Not A Home

QUIZ
PART-03

1. Why did the narrator's family need to borrow money from the grandparents?
 A. Their savings were hidden in the house
 B. They had no credit cards, cash, or identification
 C. The bank was closed that day
 D. The mother lost her job (B)

Explanation: All their money, documents, and identification were destroyed in the fire, so they had to borrow from grandparents.

2. What did the narrator keep hoping for while watching the rubble being cleared?
 A. That the house could be rebuilt soon
 B. That his books would be found
 C. That his cat might still be found alive
 D. That money might be hidden under the debris (C)

Explanation: Even while the rubble was being cleared, he hoped his missing cat might be discovered.

3. Why did the narrator feel embarrassed at school after the fire?
 A. He blamed himself for the fire
 B. Everyone knew about his plight
 C. His teachers ignored him
 D. He had forgotten his homework (B)

Explanation: He felt embarrassed because everyone at school knew about his tragic situation.

4. What surprise did the narrator's schoolmates arrange for him in the gym?
 A. A farewell party
 B. A big table with clothes and supplies
 C. A new pair of shoes only
 D. A poster with encouraging words (B)

Explanation: The classmates collected supplies, clothes, and notebooks for him and placed them on a big table in the gym.

5. How did the narrator react to the kindness of his schoolmates?
 A. He felt suspicious
 B. He was overcome with emotion
 C. He refused their gifts
 D. He ignored them (B)

Explanation: He was deeply moved by their concern and generosity.

6. What realization gave the narrator a sigh of relief at school?
 A. That his cat was safe
 B. That people truly cared about him
 C. That he would soon move to another school
 D. That his house was already rebuilt (B)

Explanation: He realized for the first time that things would be okay because of the genuine care shown by his classmates.

7. What important comparison did the narrator make while watching his house being rebuilt?
 A. His house looked stronger than before
 B. His life was also rebuilding like the house
 C. Rebuilding was too slow and tiring
 D. He wanted to move into a bigger house (B)

Explanation: He compared the rebuilding of his house with the rebuilding of his own life after tragedy.

8. How was the narrator reunited with his cat?
 A. A fireman brought her back
 B. She returned home by herself
 C. A woman found her and returned her
 D. His grandparents had kept her safe (C)

Explanation: A kind woman who had found the cat after the fire brought her back to the narrator.

9. Why had the cat run away so far from the house?
 A. She was looking for food
 B. She followed strangers
 C. She was frightened by the fire
 D. She disliked the narrator's new house (C)

Explanation: The cat was terrified by the fire and ran over a mile away.

10. What feelings did the narrator experience when he held his cat again?
 A. Indifference and coldness
 B. Anger and disappointment
 C. Gratitude and happiness
 D. Fear and sadness (C)

Explanation: He felt grateful for his life, friends, the kindness of strangers, and the return of his beloved cat.