

CHAPTER-4 | From the Diary of Anne Frank

QUIZ
PART-03

1. Why did Mr. Keesing give Anne the essay 'A Chatterbox'?

- A. To be quiet
- B. To punish Anne
- C. To test writing
- D. To stop writing (B)

Explanation: Mr. Keesing gave Anne the essay to punish her for talking too much.

2. What was Anne's first essay about?

- A. A talkative duck
- B. A funny story
- C. A student's behavior
- D. A moral lesson (A)

Explanation: Anne wrote about a talkative mother duck and her ducklings in the first essay.

3. How did Mr. Keesing react to Anne's first essay?

- A. Scolded her
- B. Laughed and read it out loud
- C. Ignored it
- D. Gave a reward (B)

Explanation: He found it funny and read it to the class, adding his own remarks.

4. How did Anne respond to the second essay topic?

- A. She refused to write
- B. Wrote a poem
- C. Asked for help
- D. Wrote a long essay (B)

Explanation: Anne turned the essay into a creative poem, making it humorous.

5. Who helped Anne with the poem?

- A. Her father
- B. Sanne
- C. Her mother
- D. Teacher (B)

Explanation: Anne's friend Sanne helped her write the poem.

6. What was the topic of the third essay?

- A. A sad duck
- B. Mistress Chatterbox
- C. Quiet class
- D. A new hobby (B)

Explanation: The third essay topic was "Quack, Quack, Quack, Said Mistress Chatterbox."

7. What was Anne's reaction when Mr. Keesing read her poem?

- A. She cried
- B. She laughed
- C. She got angry
- D. She felt embarrassed (B)

Explanation: Anne laughed when Mr. Keesing read her poem aloud.

8. How did Mr. Keesing's attitude change after the third essay?

- A. He punished her
- B. He became humorous
- C. He ignored her
- D. He became stricter (B)

Explanation: Mr. Keesing started to joke and allowed Anne to speak in class again.

9. How did Anne describe Mr. Keesing in her diary?

- A. Strict but understanding
- B. Humorous and fun
- C. Good teacher
- D. Boring (A)

Explanation: Anne described Mr. Keesing as strict but eventually understanding and humorous.

10. What lesson did Anne's experience teach?

- A. Writing is hard
- B. Humor resolves conflict
- C. Teachers shouldn't punish
- D. Talking is not allowed (B)

Explanation: Anne's creative and humorous approach helped her resolve the conflict with Mr. Keesing.