

CHAPTER-6 | Population

QUIZ PART-03

1. Population change is affected by:

- A. Birth, death, migration
- B. Size, migration, death
- C. Birth, immigration, urbanization
- D. Only migration (A)

Explanation: Birth, death, and migration drive population change.

2. Birth rate is:

- A. Deaths per year
- B. Births per thousand people
- C. Growth rate
- D. Migration rate (B)

Explanation: Birth rate is the number of live births per thousand people annually.

3. Death rate refers to:

- A. Deaths per thousand people
- B. Population density
- C. Birth rate
- D. Migration rate (A)

Explanation: Death rate is measured per thousand people annually.

4. Natural increase is:

- A. Population growth
- B. Difference between birth rate and death rate
- C. Immigration
- D. Growth rate (B)

Explanation: Natural increase is the difference between birth and death rates.

5. Migration is:

- A. Population growth
- B. Movement of people
- C. Natural vegetation
- D. Birth rate (B)

Explanation: Migration is the movement of people between regions.

6. A "push" factor for migration is:

- A. Better jobs
- B. Natural disasters
- C. Better education
- D. Healthcare (B)

Explanation: Natural disasters push people to migrate.

7. "Pull" factors include:

- A. Poor employment
- B. Better job opportunities
- C. War
- D. Lack of healthcare (B)

Explanation: Better job opportunities attract people.

8. Internal migration means:

- A. Moving to another country
- B. Movement within a country
- C. Migration due to war
- D. Migration for education (B)

Explanation: Internal migration is within the same country.

9. Adolescents make up:

- A. One-fifth of India's population
- B. One-quarter
- C. One-tenth
- D. One-third (A)

Explanation: Adolescents (ages 10-19) make up one-fifth of India's population.

10. The National Population Policy aims to:

- A. Increase birth rates
- B. Improve health and reduce infant mortality
- C. Promote migration
- D. Increase population growth (B)

Explanation: The policy focuses on improving health and reducing infant mortality.