

POEM-4 | How to Tell Wild Animal

QUIZ-01

1. What is the poet's suggestion to identify the Asian Lion?

- A. By its yellow hide B. By its black stripes
C. By its loud roar as you are dying
D. By its sharp claws (C)

Explanation: The poet humorously suggests that you can identify the Asian Lion by its loud roar just as it attacks you, adding a playful twist to the description.

2. How does the Bengal Tiger differ from the Asian Lion, according to the poem?

- A. The tiger does not roar.
B. The tiger eats you after advancing.
C. The tiger has spots.
D. The tiger has a small body. (B)

Explanation: The poem humorously notes that the Bengal Tiger will "eat you" after advancing, highlighting its predatory nature and providing a fun way to distinguish it.

3. What happens if you encounter a leopard, as described in the poem?

- A. It roars loudly.
B. It leaps on you repeatedly.
C. It scares you with its size.
D. It runs away quickly. (B)

Explanation: The poet humorously warns that a leopard will keep leaping on you even if you roar in pain, reflecting its relentless nature.

4. What is the poet's humorous way of identifying a bear?

- A. By its black fur B. By its gentle caress
C. By its strong and friendly hug
D. By its sharp teeth (C)

Explanation: The poet refers to a bear's embrace as a "bearhug," humorously blending its attacking nature with a warm, strong hug.

5. According to the poem, how can you distinguish a crocodile from a hyena?

- A. Crocodiles weep, and hyenas smile.
B. Crocodiles laugh, and hyenas cry.
C. Crocodiles roar, and hyenas are silent.
D. Crocodiles run, and hyenas fly. (A)

Explanation: The poem uses the popular notions of "crocodile tears" and "hyena smiles" to humorously differentiate the two creatures.

6. What is the unique feature of the chameleon mentioned in the poem?

- A. It changes color frequently.
B. It has wings.
C. It is invisible when on a tree.
D. It roars loudly to scare predators. (C)

Explanation: The poet humorously suggests that a chameleon can't be seen on a tree due to its camouflage, blending into its surroundings.

7. Why does the poet use words like "dyin'" and "lep" in the poem?

- A. To modernize the language
B. To maintain rhyme and rhythm
C. To make it complex
D. To emphasize the danger (B)

Explanation: The poet deliberately alters spellings to fit the rhyme and rhythm of the poem, adding to its playful tone and structure.

8. What literary device is primarily used in "How to Tell Wild Animals"?

- A. Hyperbole B. Simile
C. Personification D. Irony (A)

Explanation: The poet uses hyperbole, such as "If he roars at you as you're dyin'," to exaggerate and create humor while describing the animals.

9. What theme is central to the poem?

- A. Serious identification of animals
B. The dangers of the wild
C. Humorous ways to recognize animals
D. Survival in jungles (C)

Explanation: The poem's primary theme is its humorous and exaggerated approach to identifying wild animals, making it engaging and lighthearted.

10. Why does the poet describe the Bengal Tiger's stripes as a "yellow ground"?

- A. To highlight its camouflage in the jungle
B. To emphasize its aggressive nature
C. To make the poem sound serious
D. To mock its appearance (A)

Explanation: The poet uses the description to draw attention to the tiger's natural camouflage, blending humor and factual elements seamlessly.