

CHAPTER-6 | Amanda!

QUIZ
PART-02

1. Who is most likely speaking to Amanda in the poem?

- A. Her teacher
- B. Her father
- C. Her mother
- D. Her friend

(C)

Explanation: The speaker is most likely Amanda's mother, who keeps instructing her to behave properly and maintain discipline.

2. Why are stanzas 2, 4, and 6 given in parentheses?

- A. They are Amanda's dreams and thoughts.
- B. They describe Amanda's actions.
- C. They are spoken by her parents.
- D. They are notes by the poet.

(A)

Explanation: These stanzas represent Amanda's inner thoughts and imagination, which contrast her mother's continuous scolding.

3. What does Amanda imagine herself as in stanza 2?

- A. A queen
- B. A mermaid
- C. A fairy
- D. An orphan

(B)

Explanation: Amanda imagines herself as a mermaid, drifting happily and freely in a calm, emerald sea—symbolizing peace and escape.

4. What does Amanda imagine in stanza 4?

- A. That she is an orphan roaming freely in the streets
- B. That she is a queen commanding people
- C. That she is sleeping peacefully
- D. That she is studying hard

(A)

Explanation: Amanda imagines herself as an orphan walking freely in the streets, away from parental control and nagging.

5. Why does Amanda wish to be Rapunzel?

- A. Because Rapunzel lived a happy and free life in a tower
- B. Because Rapunzel had long hair
- C. Because Rapunzel was rich and famous
- D. Because Rapunzel had magical powers

(A)

Explanation: Amanda wants to be Rapunzel to live alone in peace, away from others' interference, symbolizing her longing for solitude and calm.

6. What do Amanda's fantasies reveal about her?

- A. She is lazy and careless.
- B. She is imaginative and desires freedom.
- C. She is obedient and shy.
- D. She dislikes her parents.

(B)

Explanation: Amanda's fantasies show her creative imagination and her yearning for independence and peace away from constant control.

7. Why does Amanda say, "The silence is golden, the freedom is sweet"?

- A. Because she loves quietness and independence.
- B. Because she dislikes talking to people.
- C. Because she wants to be rich.
- D. Because she likes being punished.

Explanation: Amanda values silence and freedom, which she finds more satisfying than being constantly instructed by her mother.

8. What literary device is used in the phrase "Stop that slouching and sit up straight"?

- A. Metaphor
- B. Alliteration
- C. Simile
- D. Anaphora

(B)

Explanation: The repetition of the consonant sound 's' in "Stop," "slouching," and "straight" is an example of alliteration.

9. What does Amanda yearn for in the poem?

- A. Food and luxury
- B. Freedom, peace, and space
- C. Toys and chocolates
- D. Friendship and fun

(B)

Explanation: Amanda longs for freedom and tranquility, wishing to escape the pressure of constant correction from her parents.

10. Is Amanda actually sulking at the end of the poem?

- A. Yes, she is angry with her mother.
- B. No, she is lost in her daydreams and appears moody.
- C. Yes, she is refusing to listen to anyone.
- D. No, she is laughing secretly.

(B)

Explanation: Amanda is not truly sulking; she is lost in her imaginative world, which makes her seem moody to her mother.
