1. What made writing in a diary a strange experience for Anne Frank?

- A. She feared being discovered by others
- B. She had never written before and thought no one would be interested in a thirteen-year-old's thoughts
- C. She preferred talking to people rather than writing
- D. Her parents forbade her from writing (B)

Explanation: Anne explains it felt strange because she had never written anything before and believed no one would be interested in the musings of a thirteen-year-old.

2. What name did Anne give to the diary she intended as a friend?

- A. Anna
- B. Kitty
- C. Margot
- D. Rosie (B)

Explanation: She decided the diary would be her friend and she was going to call that friend "Kitty."

3. Why did Anne decide to keep a diary?

- A. To practice her handwriting
- B. Because she wanted to become a famous author
- C. Because she felt she had no true friend to confide in and needed a place to share her thoughts
- D. To document political events for school (C)

Explanation: Anne says she lacks a real friend to confide in, so the diary will be her closest companion for sharing thoughts and feelings.

4. What does the phrase "Paper has more patience than people" imply?

- A. Writing is always easier than speaking aloud
- B. Paper can be relied on to listen without judgement, allowing her to pour out her heart freely
- C. People are better listeners than paper
- D. Paper never forgets facts (B)

Explanation: Anne uses this phrase to express that she can pour out her heart on paper without hindrance because paper won't judge or interrupt.
