B. It will end either in fire or in ice.
C. It will last forever.
D. It will end because of earthquakes. (B)

Explanation: The poet mentions that some people believe the world will end in fire, while others believe it will end in ice.

2. What does the poet associate with 'fire'?
A. Anger
B. Hatred
C. Desire
D. Jealousy (C)

Explanation: The poet relates fire to human desire, which symbolizes intense emotions that can lead to destruction.

3. How does the poet describe the emotion of 'ice'?
A. It represents calmness and peace.
B. It represents hatred and indifference.
C. It represents ignorance.
D. It represents curiosity. (B)

Explanation: Frost describes ice as symbolizing hatred and cold indifference, which can destroy humanity slowly.

4. According to the poet, how will the world end twice?
A. By natural disasters and war.
B. By fire first, and then by ice.
C. By human negligence and pollution.
D. By love and greed. (B)

Explanation: Frost says the world could end once in fire (desire) and again in ice (hatred), both capable of bringing destruction.

5. What is the rhyme scheme of the poem Fire and Ice?
A. aabbccdd
B. ababcbcd
C. abaabcbcb
D. ababcbcb (C)

Explanation: The rhyme scheme is a, b, a, a; b, c, b, c, b, helping to emphasize the contrast between fire (desire) and ice (hate).

6. Which poetic device is used in the repetition of "Some say"?
A. Anaphora
B. Alliteration
C. Metaphor
D. Hyperbole (A)

Explanation: The repetition of "Some say" at the beginning of lines is an example of anaphora, used for emphasis.

7. What message does the poet convey through the poem?
A. Love and kindness can save the world.
B. Both desire and hatred can destroy humanity.
C. The world will never end.
D. Nature is stronger than human emotions. (B)

Explanation: Frost highlights the dual destructive potential of strong emotions like desire and hatred, warning about imbalance and extremity.

8. How does the rhyme scheme help in expressing the poem's meaning?
A. It makes the poem sound musical.
B. It contrasts the two opposing ideas of fire and ice.
C. It confuses the reader intentionally.
D. It emphasizes only the theme of desire. (B)

Explanation: The alternating rhyme structure mirrors the contrast between the two forces—fire and ice—that represent different destructive emotions.

9. Which of the following poetic devices is NOT used in the poem?
A. Symbolism
B. Enjambment
C. Personification
