

CHAPTER-9 | The Tale of Custard the Dragon

QUIZ
PART-03

1. The rhyme scheme of the poem is

- A. ABAB
- B. AABB
- C. ABCB
- D. ABBA (B)

Explanation: The PDF states that the poem follows the rhyme scheme AABB.

2. "Winda", "realio" and "trulio" are examples of

- A. metaphor
- B. poetic licence
- C. irony
- D. pun (B)

Explanation: These words are used creatively by the poet by departing from normal language form.

3. "Coward – called – Custard" is an example of

- A. alliteration
- B. enjambment
- C. personification
- D. symbolism (A)

Explanation: The same starting consonant sound is repeated in nearby words.

4. "Chimney for a nose" is a

- A. simile
- B. metaphor
- C. refrain
- D. onomatopoeia (B)

Explanation: It compares the dragon's nose to a chimney without using "like" or "as."

5. Which one is a sound word from the poem?

- A. weeck
- B. barrel
- C. pirate
- D. wagon (A)

Explanation: "Weeck" imitates the sound made by the mouse, so it is onomatopoeia.

6. The repeated use of the word "little" is called

- A. contrast
- B. repetition
- C. inversion
- D. hyperbole (B)

Explanation: Repeating the same word again and again is repetition.

7. "And the little grey..." / "And the little yellow..." shows

- A. anaphora
- B. Allusion
- C. metaphor
- D. oxymoron (A)

Explanation: Anaphora is the repetition of the same word at the beginning of successive phrases or lines.

8. The reference to "Percival" is an example of

- A. imagery
- B. allusion
- C. irony
- D. alliteration (B)

Explanation: "Percival" is an indirect reference, so it is an allusion.

9. The poem is mainly

- A. tragic and sad
- B. serious and dark
- C. light-hearted and funny
- D. mysterious and silent (C)

Explanation: The PDF explains that the poem is meant to be enjoyed and has a fun, humorous style.

10. The central message of the poem is the importance of

- A. outer beauty
- B. inner strength
- C. wealth
- D. strict discipline (B)

Explanation: The PDF's learning outcome highlights that true worth lies in inner strength and real courage.